Margaret Poutu Morice

followed by a panel of Waka Oranga members

‘Towards a Māori Psychotherapy’

In this presentation, Margaret Poutu Morice will draw from her original Master's dissertation which focused on core relational concepts from Te Ao Māori and their relevance to the theory and practice of psychotherapy and counselling in Aotearoa New Zealand.

Margaret Poutu Morice – Ngāti Porou is a founding member of Waka Oranga and a rūnanga member. She holds memberships with NZAP and NZAC and has contributed extensively through publications, advocacy, supervision and training in the development of Māori therapeutic practices in Aotearoa. Margaret is taking a year's break from her role as a clinical educator for the psychotherapy training programme at Auckland University of Technology, to return home to Central Hawkes Bay to be with her beloved 99 year old Dad.

The Poutama seminars provide an excellent professional development opportunity for anyone wishing to expand their knowledge of indigenous models of psychotherapy/counselling.
