

REPORT TO NZAP COUNCIL, JULY 2021

From the Ata Journal Editors

Kia Ora Koutou,

Wiremu and I continue to enjoy our work co-editing the Journal.

As reported in our previous Council report in April 2021, we are planning two issues this year, one for August 2021 and one in November or December 2021.

Following our recent call for papers for the upcoming issue, we have had responses from a range of authors. We have received submissions from some of the Te Ipu Taiao – Climate Crucible presenters, along with other submissions. We are about to commence the peer review process for some of these articles and are making steady progress in the preparation of the August issue. We also anticipate further submissions over the next few months which will assist in early preparations for the November/December issue.

Appreciations

The production of the Ata Journal is the result of the hard work and dedicated mahi of many. We thank Hineira Woodard for her generous and expert work providing te reo Māori interpretations of the abstracts; tēnā koe, Hineira. Our sincere thanks to our creative, skilful, unfailingly cheerful, and always punctual designer, Katy Yiakmis; tēnā koe, Katy. Thank you to Nikky Winchester who brings a keen eye for detail to the role of assistant editor: tēnā koe Nikky.

Conclusion

We the co-editors of the Journal, Wiremu Woodard and John O'Connor, enjoy working together in collaboration with authors with diverse perspectives in relation to psychotherapy, particularly within the Aotearoa New Zealand context. We are working well together as a team and will continue to do so. We are looking forward to the publication of the next two issues, both of which we anticipate will provide stimulating and engaging reading.

Tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou, tēnā koutou katoa.

John O'Connor

Co-Editor, Ata: Journal of Psychotherapy Aotearoa New Zealand
