We slowly continue to collect data from an ever-larger percentage of members. New members are sent a form as part of their welcome pack, and while it is not mandatory for them to complete it, the vast majority choose to do so.

Correspondents

Eight correspondents have not paid their subscription fee this year, while the other seven have paid. As the unpaid people have not responded to my messages, it is unclear if their lack of payment is due to the change in the Newsletter format. However, it is worth noting that the only thing Correspondents receive for their annual payment of $35 is a copy of the Newsletter.
