Psychotherapists, Psychologists Counsellors, Body Workers and Somatic Therapists—please join us to train in the original relational somatic psychotherapy—Bioenergetic Analysis, a modality grounded in a century of work beginning with Wilhelm Reich and Alexander Lowen.

This programme will give you a rich, deep, satisfying four-year Bioenergetic training that will set you up for a lifetime of profound body + mind therapy work. It will include your own personal bioenergetic journey, along with a deep understanding of psychological healing and a rich experiential kete of tools for working with your clients. It will support you to work with both the mind and body at the deepest and most rigorous levels. Once certified, you will be qualified to register as a psychotherapist in Aotearoa New Zealand and able to take your place in an international community of Bioenergetic Therapists, with ongoing professional development opportunities available around the world.

Training Programme Dates: Feb 2025–29.

Applications close: 24 October, 2024.

Location: Wellington

Format: Three 5-day workshops and three weekend-workshops per year.

Participants are required to be doing personal bioenergetic therapy as a client while training.
